Ref. No. B7990/27-08-2015

Subject: Letter of Commitment of Democritus University of Thrace (DUTH) to the Principles of the European Commission's Recommendation "The European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of researchers"

We are pleased to inform you that the Senate of Democritus University of Thrace on its Meeting of 30 July 2015 unanimously decided to adopt the general principles and requirements laid out in the Commission's Recommendation regarding the "European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of researchers" (Decision No B6229).

Several of the principles of the Charter and Code of Conduct are already common practice at the Democritus University of Thrace, while others are presently being developed.

By implementing the above principles and requirements the University expresses its intention to undertake the necessary measures for the improvement of the career prospects for researchers in Europe and to contribute to the development of an attractive, open and sustainable European labour market for researchers.

Yours sincerely

Assoc. Professor Pantelis N. Botsaris
Deputy Rector of Research and Innovation
Democritus University of Thrace
