Ad. Declaration of commitment to the Recommendation of the European Commission on the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

Please find attached a signed copy of the Declaration of commitment to the Recommendation of the European Commission on the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers from the Diakonhjemmet University College.

We hereby confirm that we fully support the principles and commit ourselves to applying them. The signature is also a further commitment to foster international collaboration and the various forms of mobility by researchers and to contribute to the realization of an open and attractive labour market for researchers.

Sincerely yours,

Ingunn Moser

Rector

Declaration of commitment to the Recommendation of the European Commission on the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

The Diakonhjemmet University College, represented by rector Ingunn Moser, welcomes and fully support the Recommendation of the European Commission on the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (hereinafter referred to as: the Charter & Code).

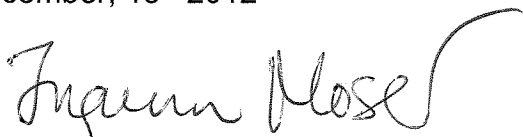

By endorsing the Charter & Code, the Diakonhjemmet University College recognizes the value of its principles and voluntarily commits itself to applying them.

This endorsement by the Diakonhjemmet University College is fully in line with its policy aiming at making a researcher's career more attractive and at enhancing the quality of research and innovation. The signature of the Charter & Code is also a further commitment to foster international collaboration and the various forms of mobility by researchers.

By implementing the Charter & Code principles, the Diakonhjemmet University College intends to contribute to the realization of an open and attractive European labour market for researchers.

Oslo,

December, 18th 2012

Ingunn Moser
